REPORT OF SCHOOL BOARD.

The Board of Education respectfully submits the following report :

The schools in town have been eminently successful the past year, the teachers have faithfully discharged their duties and we are pleased to announce that their labors have produced good results. We should always remember that our public schools, to a great extent, will furnish the men and women who will govern our nation in the future and it becomes us as citizens of a common country to uphold the standard of our public schools. We should never forget that the knowledge obtained from the textbooks is only a small part of education. The pupils should be taught the necessity of sustaining a good moral character and, if they would be successful in life, they should at all times possess pure morals and pure motives. We have endeavored to discharge our duties according to our best abilities, always regarding the general welfare of the teachers and pupils and we have reasonably succeeded in our efforts. We sincerely hope that our common schools in subsequent years will continue to increase in knowledge, power and patriotism.

GEORGE S. SEVERANCE,
ELGIN G. FARNSWORTH,
MASON H. DOLE,

School Board.

East Washington Division.

East Washington, Feb. 10, 1908.

The spring term was taught by Miss Maude A. Styles of Peterboro. Miss Styles was very successful in her labors. The examination was excellent, the lessons were well learned and promptly recited. Miss Styles commenced to teach the fall term and taught seven weeks successfully, then, her mother being very sick, she was obliged to leave the school unfinished and Miss Ethel C. Trow of Washington Centre finished the term. The examination passed off creditably to both teacher and pupils. Miss Trow taught the winter term. The examination was very good and the lessons correctly recited. Miss Trow is a first-class teacher.

New Boston Division.

Spring term taught by Miss Ruth E. Safford of Washington Centre. Miss Safford maintained good discipline and the pupils made excellent progress. Fall term taught by Miss Mildred G. Morey of Manchester. This was Miss Morey's first trial in teaching and she taught a very good school. The examination was first-class. Miss Morey—with a little more experience in teaching, will become a superior teacher.

The three terms of school in this division were taught by the same teacher as last year, Miss Vina A. Dole. We think the district fortunate to secure the services of Miss Dole for another year. The examinations at the close of each term showed that the year's work had been a complete success.
